Re: 08 CV 4032 - Elliot S. Sash and Joyce R. Garland-Sash, Plaintiffs Pro Se against Eve Rosahn, Esq. and The Legal Aid Society of New York
Our File No.: 6010-55

Dear Judge Jones:

We have been designated to represent the interests of Defendants Eve Rosahn and The Legal Aid Society in connection with the above referenced matter.

My Office erroneously sent a letter to Magistrate Dollinger, who we had thought had been designated by the Court in connection with this matter requesting an enlargement of time within in which to move or answer with respect to the Complaint. Enclosed is a copy of the letters sent to Magistrate Dollinger.

In the interim, I received a telephone call from Magistrate Pittman's office advising that if the case is assigned to a Magistrate it would be Magistrate Henry Pittman. Since the matter has not, as of yet, been assigned to the Magistrate, it was suggested that I write to you with respect to our request for an enlargement of time until September 22, 2008 to move or answer with respect to the Complaint.

We have already secured the approval of the plaintiffs to this request.

The reason for the request is that I have not, as yet, had an opportunity to review the full file from the Legal Aid nor an opportunity to meet with my client, who is currently on vacation. Her vacation schedule overlaps mine and upon my return, I would need the time to prepare.

This is the first application made for the relief requested.

Respectfully submitted,

Peter I. Livingston (PL 1377)
